Our state-of-the-art replication facilities insure that the product is manufactured correctly and arrives on time, to the specified destination; whether we are shipping 1 piece or 1,000,000. Our customers have learned that they can count on us to maintain a level of superior customer service throughout their entire project.

With the emergence of digital technologies, New World continues as an industry leader by offering a variety of digital platforms designed to suit individual needs. New World offers one of the very first distribution channels to non-major studio releases and independent filmmakers for worldwide placement of their digital content. Our worldwide distribution includes: North America, Europe, Africa and Asia (including India, China, the Middle East and Pakistan).

We would be pleased to be a sponsor of your film festival and look forward to being a partner with any and all of the artists participating in your event, to help them get their creative works distributed within the marketplace. Thank you for your consideration of New World Digital Entertainment as an event sponsor, and we look forward to hearing from you.
